

Θνήσκω THE TRUTH BEHIND VALENTINES DAY καταστροφή

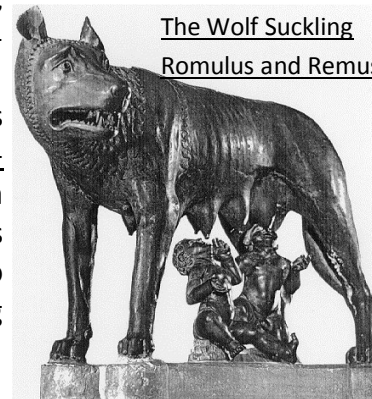

Valentines day, or the Ides of February in the Roman calendar, is the festival of the Lupercalia. Lupercus was the god of shepherds and his festival was intended to insure fertility in the coming spring. At the beginning of the festival, there was an animal sacrifice, and thongs (whips) were then made out of the hides of the animals. The Luperci priests would then run through the streets, dressed in bloody goatskins, and lash the women of the city with the thongs, a ritual which was meant both to promote fertility among the women, as well as an easy childbirth.

In Greek, he is known as the Lycaean Pan, the Romans called him Inuus or Faunus Lupercus.

Pan is famous for his sexual powers, and is often depicted with a phallus (Penis), Diogenes of Sinope, speaking in jest, related a myth of Pan learning masturbation from his father, Hermes, and teaching the habit to shepherds. Bestiality was rampant during the Greco-Roman era!

The Wolf Suckling
Romulus and Remus

[Lycaean is a word connected with the Greek for 'wolf' as seen in the term lycanthropy for 'werewolf'.] Etymologically, Luperci, Lupercalia, and Lupercal all relate to the Latin for 'wolf' lupus, as do various Latin words connected with brothels. The Latin for she-wolf was slang for prostitute. The legends say that Romulus and Remus were nursed by a she-wolf in the Lupercal. Servius, a 4th century pagan commentator on Vergil, says that it was in the Lupercal that Mars ravished and impregnated the twins' mother. (Servius ad. Aen. 1.273)

HOW DID THIS WICKEDNESS BECOME HOLIDAY, OR "HOLY" DAY?

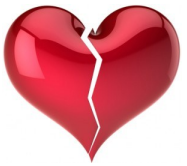

Christian Holidays are ancient pagan feasts that were ushered in by the Roman Catholic Church during the rule of emperor Constantine. Constantine was a pagan sun-worshipper who had a "Christian experience" that wanted to unite his empire, both Christian and pagan together. He achieved this by re-writing history and re-naming pagan feasts with so called Christian names. St. Valentine's Day began as a liturgical celebration of one or more early romans named Valentinus.

Pagans in Rome celebrated the evening of February 14th and February 15th and as an idolatrous festival in honor of Lupercus "the hunter of wolves". It was not until the reign of Pope Gelasius that the holiday became a "Christian" custom. "As far back as 496, Pope Gelasius changed Lupercalia on February 15th to St. Valentine's Day on February 14th." The original Saint Valentine was Nimrod, on this day in February, Semiramis, the mother of Tammuz, was said to have been purified and to have appeared for the first time in public with her son as the original "mother and child."
